

Your Guide to the Online Catalogue 3

Searching for e-books

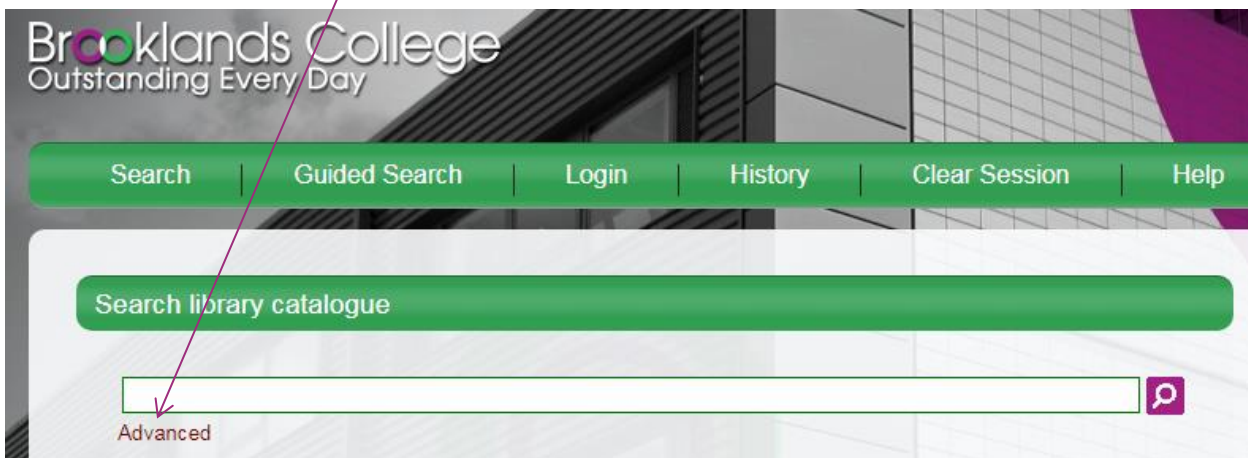

The online catalogue lists all the e-books in the Brooklands College collection.

You can access the online catalogue via the LRC website, Moodle pages or direct from <http://brooco.cirqahosting.com/Heritage>

The catalogue will open in simple search mode. This is great for doing a quick general search. Click on the Advanced link below the search box on the simple search screen to access advanced searching.

This option allows you to build more complex searches by adding search boxes and combining them.

Search tips:

- Searches are not case sensitive, this means it doesn't matter whether you use capital letters or not.
- When searching for authors, enter the surname of the main author.
- Search terms can be combined:
 - America AND history will give you records which contain BOTH terms
 - Infant OR child will give you records which contain either or both terms
- To search for a phrase enter the words in quotation marks: "diary of a wimpy kid"
- Use the wildcard * to replace one or more characters. You can use it anywhere in a word:
 - Col*r will find records containing colour or color
 - Child* will find records containing child, children or childhood
